

Lubecore Communication

Subject: New Associate at Lubecore International Inc.

Date: August 20, 2013

Lubecore International Inc. is pleased to announce our newest associate, Mr. Doug DeJong. Doug has come on board the Lubecore Team as the Executive Director Sales USA.

Doug brings with him over 30 years of experience in customer service, sales and sales management. In his most recent position, Doug was key in specifying Mitsubishi starters and alternators with large fleets. Doug has a history working with dealers and distributors throughout North America.

It is Lubecore's intent to work closely with Doug and follow his lead to grow our presence in the US market. Doug's vast experience and network of contacts will allow us to introduce the Lubecore line of products to many companies that we previously did not have contact with.

Join us in welcoming Doug to Lubecore. Please find his contact information below.
